Record—329 miles 440 yards.

Diehl and Horst, the Australian team, left the track for good at 11:23. Horst has been in very bad shape since the race started. His ankle went back on him and he could never get it back into shape. In three days he has been an object of much commiseration, limping about the track in perfect torture. This team came all the way from Australia to participate in the last six-day bicycle race, but they had to work their passage over and so arrived thirty days too late. They stayed here, however, for the race now in progress.

Little Sammy Day* and "Kid Willie" Hughes, the three-hundred pound son of the old "Lepper," aroused quite some excitement at 11:30 o'clock. Day challenged "Willie" for a race, and they sped about the track for a lap much to the amusement of the crowd. "Willie" won the race.

Nearly every one is now willing to concede that the race lies between the three leaders in the race. The leaders themselves are aware of this fact and they run in a close bunch all the time. Metkus and Fahey set the pace, while Cavanaugh and Shelton dog them continually.

Fahey and Metkus and Cavanaugh and Hegelman are the favorites over Shelton and Guerrero, notwithstanding the fact that the latter hold second position by a comfortable margin. Fahey and Metkus are young and strong and are going steadily. The Feeneys still keep up their dog trot and will be in sixth place before the day is out. Only a mile separates them from Davis and Carroll, the Indian team, and the latter are fast going to pieces.

All of the men on the track are going much better and fresher than at the same hour yesterday.

Anybody who did not know that a six-day walking match was being contested at Madison Square Garden this week might have caused an ambulance to be called from Bellevue Hospital to remove an individual who insisted on running along Fourth avenue early this morning clad in a thin running suit. The person was Carroll, Indian Davis's partner. The monotony of circling the track in the Garden had begun to tell on him, and when relieved at one time he made a break for the Fourth avenue entrance to get on the street. The doorkeeper could not stop him and he got out. He began a swift sprint up the avenue. Tom Eck, his trainer, started after him and caught him about a block and half away and tried to coax him back. Carroll stood still, arguing the matter, refusing to walk back, but the cold air brought him to his senses and he returned to the big amphitheatre.

Canadian Runs Fast.
Other than that display of mental aberration the Canadian is in fine fettle. The way he sped around the Garden at all times dispelled any doubt on the subject. He set a pace that was heart-breaking, and he was the primary cause of two teams dropping out earlier in the night and another about 6 o'clock this morning. The latter was the team of Abbott and McGuire.

Twenty-three teams are left in the race. There will not be that many by the passing of another twenty-four hours, for the hard grind is beginning to tell severely on those left. In some instances, though, the acquirement of second wind is apparent. Thus, Cavanaugh, Hegelman's mate, for instance, The Irishman appeared "all in" yesterday, but to-day he seemed infused with new life. He set a pace, too, that only the Feeney team and Shelton and Carroll could follow. His great work earned him the favor of big Jim Jeffries, who was present until dawn began to break. The champion pugilist kept him supplied with cigars.

Girl Would Run for Horst.
Cavanaugh is not the only one of the runners to earn approval of an individual. Young Horst, of the team of Diehl and Horst, has an admirer in the person of a woman. The Australian shows the effect of the awful strain and looks eligible to quit at any time. It was that she felt she did not feel for him that she volunteered to take his place. Her name could not be learned and, anyway, she was not an actress looking for press notices.

IT LOOKS VERY HUMOROUS TO THE SPECTATORS—BUT IT HAS ITS OTHER SIDE.

DREYFUSS STICKS TO A. G. SPALDING.

EVEN IF EVERY OTHER MAGNATE DESERTS HIM.

Pittsburg Club's President Says He Wouldn't Think of Voting for Soden for President.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 12.—Barney Dreyfuss, President of the Pittsburg Baseball Club, will not desert A. G. Spalding. He announces that he will stick by Spalding for President of the National League even if every other baseball magnate should desert him. The move which is being made at present by the Freedman-Brush-Robinson combination to get the consent of five clubs to cast their votes for A. H. Soden for President of the League has been spurned by Dreyfuss.

The latter has no idea of voting for Soden, and in speaking of the matter last night he said: "I would not vote for Mr. Soden for President of the League. I wonder if that gentleman is not a trifle worried over the situation. He seems to be doing a heap of thinking. He had a chance once before to secure this mix-up by voting for A. G. Spalding, when would have been for the best interests of all the clubs. There was a time when I possibly would have given my vote to Mr. Soden, but the day is past."

TO WRESTLE FOR ROEBER'S TITLE.

PIENING AND NORBECK WILL MEET FEB. 28.

Bout Will Be Contested at Lenox Lyceum Under Gracov-Roman Rules.

The date for the championship wrestling match between John Piening, the "Butcher Boy," conceded to be America's premier Gracov-Roman wrestler, and Carl Norbeck, the Norwegian giant champion of Norway, has at last been settled. The men will wrestle Feb. 28 at Lenox Lyceum for the world's championship, the title once held by Ernest Roebor, who conceded the same to Nachad, the Turk, after wrestling with him two hours.

Roebor subsequently matched Nachad against Piening, who defeated the former in eleven and a half minutes by a hammerlock.

The "Butcher Boy" will train under the tutelage of Johnny Dunn, his manager, on the same lines as a pugilist, order to gain agility and get his wrestling apparatus in perfect condition. He will have to win by silence alone, his opponent being a veritable Hercules.

BILLY RYAN WON SLASHING FIGHT.

BUT TOM DALY, OF NEW YORK, WASN'T DISGRACED.

Twenty Fast Rounds Necessary to Decide Close Bout in New London.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 12.—Billy Ryan, of Syracuse, won the decision over Tom Daly, of New York, in a slashing twenty-round bout before 1,200 spectators in the Opera-House last night. The "go" was terrific from start to finish, and Daly received a hard punching, but was in at the end of the fight, and was in at the end of the fight, and was in at the end of the fight.

Daly forced the fighting, but his leads were wild and Ryan countered with telling effect. Daly was picked to win, because of his excellent physical condition and great strength.

The boys were going it merrily up to the third round with scores easy, when Ryan took the lead and by his fast clever work made the crowd cheering him at the end of the third. The fourth was Ryan's, his opponent's wings going wide of the mark. Daly woke up in the fifth, and in a series of fierce mix-ups got an even break.

From the eighth to the twelfth Ryan did the execution. In the latter round he got in close and scored. From the thirteenth to the nineteenth the lead was in Ryan's favor. Daly tried hard to get his feet back to the lead, but Ryan danced out of harm to come in with driving lefts and an occasional right uppercut.

Ryan slipped down from a hard fall, but he got up and continued the fight. He was in the lead in the nineteenth, but he pounded back and ripped his left to the face. Only Daly's strength kept him there to the end. The last round was Ryan's decision beyond a doubt as he landed up a series of lefts and rights that made Daly crouch away and protect his face with both gloves. Cheers greeted the decision.

BIG FENCING BOUT ON.

Dateno and Castaldi in Fight for the Championship.
The challenge of A. S. Dateno, broadsword fencer, has been accepted by C. G. Castaldi for a side and championship bout for New Jersey. The bout will take place tonight at Old Fellows Hall, 412 Washington street, Hudson. The management has also arranged a wrestling match between Ernest August and young Sullivan. The Raymond stars will give a three-round boxing bout, and there will be broadsword and Japanese stick fencing.

YALE WANTS RACE WITH HARVARD.

OLIVE BRANCH TENDERED TO CAMBRIDGEITES.

NEW HAVEN, Feb. 12.—It isn't likely now that the summer purpose of Yale and Harvard, affecting the amateur standing of real athletes will have any serious result. Yale tendered an olive branch to Harvard in the shape of an offer to discuss the possibility of holding a race on the Thames River in June.

Yale is friendly in the hope and desire only to get a chance to meet Harvard men for a conference, confident that a few minutes' talk will settle all misunderstandings.

MISS LAURA HOWARD.

President South End Ladies' Golf Club, Chicago, Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound After the Best Doctors Had Failed to Help Her.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—I can thank you for perfect health to-day. Life looked so dark to me a year or two ago. I had constant pains my limbs swelled, I had dizzy spells, and never knew one day how I would feel the next. I was nervous and had no appetite, neither could I sleep soundly. I have been cured by your Vegetable Compound, used in conjunction with your Sarsaparilla. Wash, did more for me than all the medicines and the skill of the doctors. For eight months I have enjoyed perfect health. I truly believe that most of the doctors are guessing and experimenting when they try to cure

Woman with an assortment of complaints such as mine, but you do not guess. How I wish all suffering women would only know of your remedy, there would be less suffering. I know. Laura Howard, 112 Newbury ave., Chicago, Ill.—Signed letter in which testimonial is not given.
